

2020 NEGATIVE FORMULARY CHANGE NOTICE

A negative formulary change is defined as any of the following changes:

- 1) removal of a drug from a formulary
- 2) increasing the cost-sharing status of a drug on the formulary subsequent to a change in tier
- 3) adding or making more restrictive utilization management requirements on a drug, including
 - a. prior authorization requirements
 - b. quantity limits
 - c. step therapy requirements

Effective date of change: 01/01/2020

Drug name (medication)	Drug List (formulary) Change	Reason for change	Notes
Firazyr 30mg/3mL soln	Removed from formulary	Generic available	Generic icatibant available on formulary (with prior authorization requirements and quantity limits)